Health Policy Research Scholars 2023 Call for Applications

Eligibility*

ⓘ Instruction:

This section is designed to determine if you are eligible for the Health Policy Research Scholars program.

Respond to the questions below to determine if you meet these requirements.

*Indicates required

The Health Policy Research Scholars program is open to full-time students who are from populations underrepresented in specific doctoral disciplines and/or historically marginalized backgrounds whose racial, socioeconomic, ability status and personal factors allow them to bring unique and diverse perspectives to their research. Applicants will typically be in their first year of doctoral studies, must be starting the second year of their doctoral program in fall 2023 and be from any research-focused discipline. HPRS is especially interested in doctoral students from non-health-related disciplines.

Examples of eligible individuals from historically marginalized backgrounds include, but are not limited to, first-generation college graduates, individuals from lower socioeconomic backgrounds, individuals from racial and ethnic groups underrepresented in doctoral programs, and individuals with disabilities.

Prior experience or knowledge in health policy is not required or expected. Rather, the program is designed for doctoral students from a variety of disciplines (e.g., urban planning, political science, economics, engineering, ethnography, education, social work, etc.), who are interested in learning to apply their research to health policy. Students from health-related disciplines are welcome to apply, but will likely comprise a limited portion of the selected cohort.

1. Please specify how your background is underrepresented in discipline and/or historically marginalized.*
   Select all that apply.

☐ Racial or ethnic background
☐ Educational background
☐ Financial background
☐ Other background (e.g., ability/disability, immigrant, etc.) (please specify)

2. Will you be starting your second year as a full-time doctoral student in September of 2023?*
○ Yes, starting as a full-time second-year doctoral student
○ No, not starting as a full-time second-year doctoral student

3. Is your expected graduation date during or after spring/summer, 2026? *

◯ Yes
◯ No

4. Will you be at least 21 years old by September 1, 2023? *

◯ Yes
◯ No

5. Applicants must be U.S. citizens, permanent residents, or individuals granted Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals ("DACA") Status or Temporary Protected Status (TPS) by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services at the time of application. Do you fit the eligibility criteria described above? *

If you select "No," you will not be eligible for the program.

◯ Yes
◯ No

6. A recipient of this award cannot be related by blood or marriage to any Officer, Manager or Trustee of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, or be a descendant of the Foundation's founder. Does any of the above apply to you? *

The Officers are the Chairman of the Board of Trustees; President and CEO; Chief of Staff; Chief Operating Officer; General Counsel; Executive Vice President; Secretary; Assistant Secretary; Treasurer; and Assistant Treasurer, and Chief Investment Officer of the Foundation.*

◯ Yes
◯ No

7. If "Yes" was selected in the question above, please indicate the name(s) of the person/people to whom you are related and your relationship (e.g., child, parent, daughter-in-law). *

If you selected "No" for question #6, you will skip this question.

Federal, state, tribal, and local government employees who are not considered government officials* under Section 4946 of the Internal Revenue Code are eligible for this program.

* For these purposes, government officials are defined as any person who holds one of the following:

1. An elective public office in the executive or legislative branch of the Government of the United States,
2. An office in the executive or judicial branch of the Government of the United States, appointment to which was made by the President,

3. A position in the executive, legislative, or judicial branch of the Government of the United States— (A) which is listed in schedule C of rule VI of the Civil Service Rules, or (B) the compensation for which is equal to or greater than the lowest rate of basic pay for the Senior Executive Service under section 5382 of title 5, United States Code,
4. A position under the House of Representatives or the Senate of the United States held by an individual receiving gross compensation at an annual rate of $15,000 or more,
5. An elective or appointive public office in the executive, legislative, or judicial branch of the government of a State, tribe, possession of the United States, or political subdivision or other area of any of the foregoing, or of the District of Columbia, held by an individual receiving gross compensation at an annual rate of $20,000 or more, and a significant part of whose activities include "the independent performance of policy-making functions.
6. A position as personal or executive assistant or secretary to any of the foregoing, or
7. A member of the Internal Revenue Service Oversight Board.

8. Are you a government official under Section 4946 of the Internal Revenue Code? *

○ Yes, I am a government official.

○ No, I am not a government official.

○ Unsure. I am a government employee but am unsure if I meet the definition of government official.

9. Please provide your job title and employer name. *
If you selected "No" for question #8, you will skip this question.

Applicant Key Contact Information *

ⓘ Instruction:

Complete the "HPRS Applicant" information below prior to inviting your references in the "Reference" section.

This section collects information required for us to contact you throughout the application process and in other ways consistent with our Privacy Policy.

- Please enter all required contact information for the applicant (including home contact information).
- To save your partially completed page, scroll to the bottom of this page and select "Save, continue editing" or "Save, return home."
- Use the "Copy" feature to copy completed institutional and address information to a new contact. Choose a role from the drop-down menu and then select the "Copy" button.

You may use the "Select contact information" link below to facilitate the entry of data required below. If the information already exists in the GuideStar Exchange or from prior activity with RWJF, the fields below will be prepopulated with the required data. If that occurs, please be sure to proofread the information to ensure that it is accurate and current. Feel free to edit as needed. Use this link to learn more about this feature. If, instead, you prefer to manually enter all the required information below, you may do so.

Health Policy Research Scholars (HPRS) Applicant *

This is the student who will be the Health Policy Research Scholar. This student will be the primary recipient of all key Foundation correspondence: copy of award notice, post-award financial and monitoring, and grant closure. Additionally, this student may be contacted after the submission deadline by SSRS, an independent research firm. If contacted, they will be asked to complete a brief, online survey about the proposal process and applicant characteristics. RWJF will share this person's contact information, including email address, with SSRS for the sole purpose of soliciting feedback. Note: "Applicant's Home Institution" is the doctoral-degree-conferring institution. Type the degrees you already have (e.g, BA, MPH) in the "Degree" box.

ⓘ Instruction:

Complete the "HPRS Applicant" information BEFORE inviting your references.

One reference from each of the following roles is required:

1. Home Institution Mentor
2. Supervisor, mentor, or someone you have worked with and/or led in a volunteer, academic, or professional role who can speak to your leadership capabilities and potential.

References will not be accepted from RWJF staff members or anyone who has been an RWJF staff member within the last 5 years, current or former RWJF Board of Trustees members, staff members from the program center at Johns Hopkins, national advisory committee members, application reviewers, or staff from other RWJF national program centers.

References respond to the questions below online (no separate letter accepted). Maximum length for each is 2,500 characters or about 400 words.

1. Describe why you believe the applicant is a strong candidate for the Health Policy Research Scholars program. Please include your relationship to the applicant, including how you know them, and how long you have known them in your response.
2. Describe examples of the applicant's leadership or emerging leadership qualities in the context of an activity that sought to realize change. In your response, please reflect on your experiences with the applicant in academic, volunteer, and/or professional roles.
3. Give a specific example of the applicant's openness to learning from and/or working with individuals whose perspectives may be different than their own.

When you use the "Invite" link below, the reference will receive an automated email with login details and instructions to submit your reference. You may want to share the questions with potential references.

- Check this section to confirm references are submitted by March 15, 2023 before 3 p.m. ET. Your application cannot be submitted without both references in 'submitted' status (see "Status" below).
- If a reference writer is no longer able to fulfill their obligation, you may "Un-Invite" that reference and "Invite" another.

Essay #3

RWJF defines Leadership for health equity as the capacity for individuals, organizations, or communities to co-create an emerging future in which everyone has a fair and just opportunity for health and well-being. It requires all of us to work both independently and collectively, with equal attention to system and policy change and internal culture and practice. It takes a commitment to collaboration, respect, and accountability.

HPRS scholars and alumni are working toward realizing health equity by addressing the wide field of factors that influence the opportunity for well-being, including barriers caused by the intersection of structural racism, other forms of discrimination, and the social conditions that impact health. This is critical for building a Culture of Health.

Considering the RWJF definition of Leadership for Health Equity, what is your vision for how your research and leadership will help build a Culture of Health?

Appendices (List below the materials that you are submitting as appendices. Include an explanation of why you are including as part of your application.)

COVID Impact Statement Example: It is possible that the research that you are supposed to work on shifted because of the pandemic. As a result, the research listed on your CV does not fully demonstrate your commitment to equity. Your academic performance or progress may have also been impacted. You may feel that it is important for the application reviewers to know this information, which you can describe in the Impact Statement.
