HES4A Background & Program Components
Health Equity Scholars for Action

The primary goal of HES4A is to support the career development and academic advancement of researchers from historically underrepresented backgrounds who are conducting health equity research.
To select HES4A’s inaugural cohort of scholars who will receive grants that will help them:

- Acquire independent research funding;
- Advance their careers through mentorship opportunities; and
- Connect with a community of support.
Scholars will conduct research projects focused on health equity that reflect the spirit of one or more of RWJF’s Research-Evaluation-Learning (REL) signature research programs:

Evidence for Action
Evidence for Action (E4A) funds research examining the impact of policies, programs and partnerships on health, well-being, and equity.

Policies for Action
Policies for Action (P4A) funds research that identifies policies, laws, and other regulatory tools that can be leveraged to build a Culture of Health.

Systems for Action
Systems for Action (S4A) funds research to discover and help apply new evidence on ways of aligning America’s systems of health care delivery and financing.
Types of Research

Research should build evidence on how specific interventions (i.e., policies, systems, programs, or practices) can inform action to impact population health, well-being, and equity.

For example:

- Program or policy evaluations
- Randomized trials
- Natural experiments
- Network or systems analyses
- Exploratory science
Types of Research

Research that is NOT a good fit includes:

- Descriptive studies that seek to document the extent of a problem or condition without evaluating a solution;
- Literature reviews and needs assessments;
- Development and validation of screening tools;
- Basic biomedical inquiry, drug therapy or device research, and animal or plant science.
Mentorship

Each scholar will be matched with:

- A technical mentor
  - The primary mentor and research advisor
  - Provides research-related technical assistance

- A career coach
  - A leader in the scholar’s field
  - Serves as a role model, guide and sponsor to promote career advancement

Optionally, scholars are encouraged to involve:

- A home institution advisor
  - Promotes the scholar’s success within the home institution.
Community of Support

- Health Equity Research Learning Collaborative (HER-LC) is a forthcoming initiative that will provide:
  - Opportunities for networking and professional development
  - Training and capacity building
- Events and activities organized by RWJF and signature research program offices (E4A, P4A, S4A)
HES4A Awards

• Grants will be for $250,000 each
  Funds will cover up to 70 percent of the scholar’s salary for two years (capped at $75,000 per year), with the remainder of the award to be used for research and other related expenses.

  Examples

  • If salary is $90,000, 70% will be covered by grant ($63,000 each year).

  • If salary is $110,000, $75,000 will be covered by grant, even though it is less than 70% of the salary.

• Up to 15 grants will be awarded

• Grants will be for 24 months
Eligibility Criteria
Who’s eligible to apply?

Applicants must belong to at least ONE systematically marginalized group that has historically been underrepresented in research disciplines.

For example:

- Ethnically and racially minoritized groups underrepresented in research disciplines
- First-generation college graduates
- People for whom English is not a native language
- People from low-income communities
- LGBTQ+ individuals
- Individuals with disabilities

These examples are meant to be illustrative, not exclusive.
Who’s eligible to apply?

In addition, applicants must also meet ALL of the following criteria:

- Have completed a doctoral degree within the past 5 years (graduation date between May 1, 2016 and June 16, 2021);
- Be a junior faculty member with a full-time position that could lead to tenure, or be poised to be in such a position;
- Have a home institution that agrees to administer the grant;
- Have never served as a PI on a post-doctoral grant greater than $10,000;
- Have not received major support from other post-graduate research or training programs;
- Be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, or DACA recipient.
Application & Review Process
Application Process

Apply at my.RWJF.org.

This is a 2-stage application process:

Stage 1: Letter of intent (LOI)
- Eligibility questions
- Brief statement of impact
- Two-page research narrative
- Applicant CV/resume/biosketch

Stage 2: Full proposal (invited applicants only)
- Detailed research narrative, budget, and timeline
- Other supporting materials
- Web-based interviews with semi-finalists

LOIs are due June 16, 2021 at 3 p.m. ET
Late proposals will not be accepted
Who Will Review My Proposal?
- RWJF program officers and staff
- Alumni from RWJF New Connections program
- E4A, P4A, and S4A program representatives
- Other expert reviewers as needed

Process:
1. All LOIs that meet eligibility criteria will be read by at least 2 reviewers.
2. Reviewers will score LOIs based on selection criteria.
3. You will be notified on July 21, 2021 if you are invited to submit a full proposal.
4. If invited, you will receive further instructions and resources for preparing your full proposal.
Elements of a Competitive Proposal

At the LOI stage, reviewers will be looking for...

• Potential for HES4A to impact your career
  … As described in your statement of impact

• Relevance of the research to REL aims
  … As described in the Rationale section of your letter of intent narrative

• Feasibility of the research
  … Or the extent to which you have a reasonable plan to access data, study settings, other necessary conditions.
Scholar Expectations

• Active participation in activities offered through HER-LC and other RWJF program offices (E4A, P4A, S4A)

• Regular meetings with mentor and coach

• Periodic progress checks with RWJF

• Attendance at annual scholar convenings
